Let's make weekly plans and paint more

For me the year really starts in Spring.

Why?

because life starts in Spring in the year round cycle.

Spring is the beginning of the birth of Nature.

I have a super program to start the year of nature and to not lose yarn all year round.

There are a huge number of online art courses on the internet or art courses near by you even you find free courses too.

But I suggest to take one which has a schedule because you will be more motivated to create if deadlines are kicking.

Choose something you have to pay for, because as there's a saying 'if you pay it hurts' so you will continue because you don't want to lose which has value you paid for.

SPRING

season for a new start

After the cold and gray winter we are ready for light and sunshine. Our heart opens for new and this is the time when we are ready to set goals after we come out of our cave.

Time to set goals now.

You are an artist full of creativity. Yes you are.

My main goal is to inspire you week by week.

To hold your hands and if you need help I'm here.

You can write to me personally if you get stuck or if you want to share your little wins. Even though we are on the other side of the globe I see that our problems and happiness are the same.

MARCH

In the first lesson we get to know art supplies and you will receive some useful information about aquarelle, paints inspirational photos, underdrawing and much more info for a good start.

TIP:

'I have no time.'

This is the heard excuse.

Anyway, I'm impatient too. I worked for 15 years at movie networks where everything had to be ready immediately. This also left its mark on my art. I worked on myself for years to be able to let go of my maximalism and impatience.

In my Natureart Seasonal workshops you will find many easy and loose art videos that will help you when you don't have time (although you know there is always time for something you want to do).

Try to find a place where you will create. Let this be your little sacred creative space. If possible, do not pack away the supplies. You gain time with it and you can't claim that it's fiddly to take them out and put them away.

There will be 4 lessons in March.

APRIL

Tips:

'what to paint?'

This is the second most common excuse.

'There is nothing to paint. '

Nature is our best teacher.

If you don't have any idea, trust in nature. Painting a flower or a scene, landscape is the best.

You don't have to be precise, like in portraits, where even 1 millimeter counts.

When the first idea came to make a weekly inspirational program I made some lessons first it started on January 1st with some winter lessons. In March my man falled down the stairs and broke his spine. Surgery recovery takes so much time and work and all the spare lessons are gone quickly and I stand and say, omg please help.

All I had to do was to listen to the signs. Week-by-week I got the signs. A dragonfly came into the house we rescued and that week the lesson was about dragonfly. I walked in the street to the little shop at the corner and in front of our neighbour there was a sunflower but it has 15 heads. (sure mutant :)) so TRUST the NATURE and in YOU.

In April there will be 3 lessons + 2 for EASTER.

Daffodil

- lovely poems for your soul
- inspirational photos
- as artist see
- colorings to download for help to make underdrawing
- tip how to draw a daffodil easily
- DIY
- interesting daffodil meadows
- Painting time with 3 paintings (one is how to save a painting which wasn't too successful.

We prepare for EASTER

- natural way
- artificial way

Take it easy - few minutes little paintings

- for your soul
- painting time we paint 6 tiny paintings in no time

Dandelion

- make a wish
- about the plant
- herbal or weed?
- many idea how to use them
- as artist see
- sculptures
- DIY
- surprise
- painting time a painting and 2 craft idea- how to paint without brush

MAY

Tips:

'not good enough'

Our inner voice.

It comes to our head everytime.

Our little elf is very creative and resourceful.

He has all kinds of pre-made sentences just to scare and discourage you.

But you're smart and you don't let it affect you.

Take the brush in your other hand and tell him, just watch me play.

Mostly he calms down and then leaves you alone.

During the lessons I have something for your soul to gently kick out of your deep mood.

In May we have 5 lesson

► NATUREART SPRING SESSION

Tulip time! The one with multiple blooms is painted on 12" x 12" paper. The single bloom is painted on 5" x 7" paper. I love the "fast and loose" effect Ildiko Karsay's tutorials are having on my approach to watercolors. A few years ago, I would carefully draw each shape and paint areas one by one. This approach - no drawing, just begin and flow! Thank you once again for what you do, Ildiko Karsay! Excited to continue with summer.

Oh, Ildiko Karsay, it was so joyful to paint along with you to music. I love the colors in this piece. They make my heart smile after so many months of muted winter color. I enjoyed reading the background information about dandelions that you put together. A lot of it was new to me. Thank you for what you do!

Ildy... I would just like to say how much I am enjoying your course on painting spring flowers! You have put a great deal of work into each lesson, giving us many gorgeous photos to work from, loads of interesting information about each flower, and even recipes and other uses for some of them! The videos are very relaxing and yet inspiring and I love your choice in music! I am excited about signing up for the Natureart Summer Session. May I also say that this is an unbelievable value... the cost of the course compared to the instruction and information you provide is amazing. Thank you so much for this wonderful class. You are a fantastic and fun teacher! Thank you, and see you for the summer class! Much love, Cecile Longfellow
❤️ (Here are a few of my paintings I am most proud of!)

I finally finished my snowdrop painting! Ildy, I just want to tell you how much I am enjoying this class with all the information you have included about the flowers and the relaxing videos and all the great links, and more! You really put a lot of work into this course and it is so appreciated! I really enjoyed doing this painting of snowdrops! ❤️

Current Curiosity is watercolors. Ildiko Karsay is the teacher who got me into watercolors. She has a Nature Art class that I am currently taking and I have to say, she is the only person on the internet who has inspired me to try watercolor and nature!

Ildy, what a wonderful and inspiring year this has been with your class lessons coming to me every week. I look forward to them so much. You are a gifted teacher and provide so many great painting videos as well as tons of information about each subject. I would recomend these classes to anybody who enjoys nature and is looking for a fun informative painting experience.

Dear my lovely tribe,
I added one more video no 5 to the corcus lesson.
It is a different approach. wet-on-wet.
